FALLING
FOR THE NEW SEASON

FROM NAPLES TO NEW YORK

When accessorising couture one needs jewellery of equal splendour. For this reason designers, celebrities and socialites call upon famed Italian jewellers Faraone Mennella. The modern day jewellery couturiers are two life long friends born near Naples with a private salon in New York City. Their colourful avant-garde designs have won them legions of fans. Oprah and Carolina Herrera are favourite clients and the duo has crafted pieces for Sex and the City, Will and Grace and films including The Devil Wears Prada.

The stunning emerald and diamond cocktail ring is sure to be a show-stopper for any event. Even worn on its own such a magnetic piece is sure to draw gasps of adoration, whatever the occasion. For a colourful evening option, the multi-stone teardrop gold necklace is a fabulous new season addition. Mixing ornate stones with classic and modern designs means each piece is completely unique and utterly wearable. For a taste of high octane glamour look no further than Faraone Mennella.

Jewels from a selection, Faraone Mennella.
